

DEFENSIVE DRIVING

(National Safety Council's NSC-10)

Advantages of the Defensive Driving classroom setting:

- Personal instruction
- Classroom interaction
- Other participants' perspectives
- Excellent educational resources

This defensive driving course consists of training audiovisuals to support each session, a student's handbook and graphically dramatic PowerPoint presentation, plus a variety of other training materials.

The course is conducted in one, four hour classroom session. The major points stressed are the importance of restraints, the dangers of speeding, the results of aggressive driving, and the effects of alcohol and drugs.

The course is designed to meet the needs of various audiences, such as:

- Court referrals: drivers required to attend defensive driving course.
- Corporations: employees driving company vehicles and other key personnel.
- General Public: concerned citizens who want to improve their driving safety.
